- I, _____, have read, understood, and freely and voluntarily enter into this Equine Activity Release and Hold Harmless Agreement with Kimberly Krueger and Ben Duke dba 7th Heaven Ranch Performance Horses, understanding that this Equine Activity Release and Hold Harmless Agreement is a waiver of any and all liabilities.

- I understand the potential dangers that could incur in mounting, riding, walking, petting, grooming, feeding horse(s); including but not limited to any interactions with other horses. Understanding those risks, I hereby release Kimberly Krueger and Ben Duke dba 7th Heaven Ranch Performance Horses from any liability whatsoever in the event of injury or damage of any nature (or perhaps even death) to me or anyone else caused by or incidental to my electing to participate in equine-related activities.

- The Rider understands that equine activities are considered dangerous and can result in serious injury and even death to persons engaging in these activities. Horses are subject to flight or fight instincts when placed in a situation possessed by the equine and thus the equine is to be considered a possible danger to the Rider and to those persons engaging in all activities involving the equine. The owner cannot be held responsible for any and all injuries or death associated with engaging in equine-related activities.

- I recognize and agree that I know which equine professional(s) I will be working with and acknowledge that I agree said equine professional(s) has/have made reasonable and prudent efforts to determine my ability to engage in the equine activity and has/have sufficient knowledge of my equine and horseback riding skills as to relieve, release, and hold harmless said equine professional(s) from any continuing duty to monitor my equine activities.

- Protective headgear (riding helmet) is a must for any minors under the age of 18. Furthermore, it is strongly suggested and encouraged for all adults to also wear protective headgear while mounting, riding, dismounting, and otherwise being around horses.
